Bio For Socials

Heyyy! We're Boom Boom Womb. Four scrumptious babies with lots of energy, singing real songs for real people. Punky rock and roll/riot grrrl sound with a sprinkling of grunge. Also nip tape and lots of hair.

Formed in April of 2023, we're made up of Liv on bass - Loves drawing on people...hates toe stubbing. Remy on drums - Loves Care Bears...hates bras. Alex on lead guitar - Loves stripping...hates gluten(or does gluten hate him?). And finally Gem on guitar and lead vocals - Loves pissing in bushes... hates wearing shoes.

In terms of musical inspirations, each of us brings a different catalogue of favs from metal to pop punk to 90's divas, but collectively we pull a lot of inspo from the greats of the genre like Bikini Kill, L7, Veruca Salt etc.

Our fav track to play live changes often! We adore the new songs we write and they definitely become the favourite for a long while during the recording and releasing process. So I'd say at the moment it's gotta be our latest composition, Sweet Sugar! (Due to be recorded and released early 2026!)

We're going to be launching ourselves into 2026 with new releases, festivals and so many shows across the UK that everyone can get a taste and feel the love.
